A Message from Lui

One in five women is sexually assaulted in college. Research also indicates a very small percentage of those whom are victimized report the assault. Although there are a myriad of reasons that may prevent someone from reporting or seeking support, the Victim Service Center wants to ensure the reasoning isn't due to lack of awareness or understanding surrounding the issue.

The Victim Service Center is committed to the prevention of sexual assault and crime in our community. Through education and awareness trainings, VSC is helping prevent sexual assault on Central Florida college and university campuses. We are excited to have had the opportunity to train and educate college security personnel, staff, and students groups. Communication and building strong working partnerships with college and university administrations has also

Brave Miss World

We had an amazing viewing of Brave Miss World at Valencia College on February 5th. Students joined VSC and a panel of professionals in the field to discuss the documentary post viewing and ask questions related to sexual assault.

If you'd like to view this film, your opportunity is just around the corner. We've partnered with UCF to showcase the documentary. The free movie showing is open to the general public.
